

Tiffany Nahni Giles

Comanche Tribal Princess

Miss Tiffany Nahni Giles is the daughter of Richard and Bethany Giles of Lawton. She is the granddaughter of Marilyn Burkhart and the late Sergeant Lewis Giles, Rita Sapcut/Coosewoon and Master Sergeant Ira Barnhart, and a descendant of Chief Aruuka Papi, Chief Esí-toya, Hadden (Red) Codynah (Comanche Code Talker), Tokoyan Sapcut, Tissychy, Pewewardy, Ahway, Tahahwah, Maddicome and Nauni.

She is a licensed cosmetologist and is currently attending Redlands Community College. She has previously served as the 2007-2008 Miss Indian Fort Sill, the Elgin Riding Club Princess, and the Southwest Wranglers Riding Club Queen. She is a member of the Native American Church, United Methodist Church, Oklahoma Intertribal Club, Cow Boy Church, Elgin Riding club and the Southwest Wranglers Riding Club. Tiffany states it is truly an honor to be a part of the American Indian Exposition and that this is the first time ever an Indian organization has requested the Veterans Memorial Wall Replica, I would like to thank AIE for all their hard work to make this happen. I myself have so much to be grateful for from my parents Richard and Beth Giles. In addition, Tiffany has ridden in many parades in the surrounding communities. She competes in barrel racing competitions within Oklahoma and Texas. Tiffany is interested in dancing at powwows, learning her Comanche language, horseback riding, volleyball and softball. She also states "I am proud and honored to have been chosen to serve as Comanche Nation Princess."
